Bio

New York stadium pop vocalist and songwriter, Rachel Norman brings you on the world's most harmonious house tour in her cinematic debut album "Coming Home". Norman's theatrical training heavily informs her signature sound and live concert experience. Inspired by the show stopping divas like Ariana Grande, Janelle Monáe and Barbra Streisand, Norman expresses, "I want the audience to feel like they're in a stadium, or watching a musical, where each song tells a story both visually and musically."

The NYFA City Artist Corps awardee is known for her powerhouse performances across New York since the release of her 2019 EP "Resist". Taking the time to really develop her signature sound, Rachel followed up with a slew of singles and headlined Queens of Pop w/ Rachel Norman at iconic Brooklyn venue House of Yes. Norman capped off 2021 as the official composer and voice of Neiman Marcus' national holiday campaign, immortalizing her musical prowess with a modern rendition of Frank Sinatra's "It Had To Be You".

Take Effect Reviews regards Rachel as a "candidate for becoming the next household name pop artist". When she's not taking the pop world by storm, Norman is busy booking TV/Film & commercial acting roles for the likes of DISNEY PLUS, CRUNCH BAR, and UNION SAVINGS BANK.
